NBEA Update	Peter Meggison, President; Janet Treichel, Exec. Director
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • President Burkett thanked NBEA leaders, Peter Meggison, President, and Jan Treichel, Executive Director, for the meeting space that was provided for the NASBE meetings. • NBEA – Dr. Jan Treichel expressed her thanks for continued partnership with South-Western. • Attendance was up this year. The 3rd Edition for National Standards is available. It is a publication that we continue to revise. A summit will be hosted in October in different states for NBEA – a continued effort. Dr. Treichel complimented the leadership that we provide in our states...a strong core of state and local supervisors. She invited the members to San Antonio, encouraged increased memberships, congratulated Barb Beadle (Indiana) on being awarded the National Business Education Association Distinguished Service Award today, and expressed gratitude for the support of the standards revision. • Bonnie asked if there would be a time-line on the Interdisciplinary Resource document and received an affirmative answer. • Tina Crew is lead author in developing or revising new teachers’ ideas/lesson plans. • 2003 Methods Yearbook is being revised and will be released next year. • Jan invited the members present to the Presidential Reception.
ACTE/BE Division Update	Mary Nemesh BE Division President
The report was given by Mary Nemesh. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mary reported that there were approximately 450 participants at the National Policy Seminar in Washington and that $10,000 was raised for the ACTE Advocacy Fund. There will be three podcasts in February regarding Careers, Policies on Demand, and Examples of 2008 Budget. • A series of free webcasts were launched, including one on Perkins IV, Highlights of the Atlanta activities presented from the Discussion Groups, and Nationwide Best Practices. • March 12 – Department of Education will release the State Guides Which are due by May 7. • ACTE members visited with their legislators as part of the Policy Seminar. • Funding for FY07 will remain the same. • Mary also gave all of the Perkins IV recommendations. She indicated that the recommendations can be accessed through the ACTE website. • Future ACTE Conference locations are: December 13-17, 2007, Las Vegas, NV; 2008, Charlotte, NC; 2009, Nashville, TN. • Mary introduced Jean Kyle as the incoming BE Division President effective July 1. • She also thanks the NASBE members for their support during her tenure as President of the BE Division.
DPE Update	Robert Mitchell, Delta Pi Epsilon
Robert Mitchell brought greetings from Delta Pi Epsilon. He encouraged membership in Delta Pi Epsilon and extended an invitation to attend the National Conference that will be held in New Orleans this winter. Jan is trying to organize the summit two days before the conference regarding the revision of the keyboarding publication.

New Business

Kara B. Burkett

- Discussion: Summary points below:
- Jean stated that any recommendations regarding the BE Division should be e-mailed to her by June 30.
- The NASBE membership form is on the NASBE Website. Please pay dues and provide your e-mail address.
- Listserv – Maurice recommended that NASBE members go to the NASBE Website for instructions on subscribing to the Listserv.
- Barb Bielenberg requested that newsletter items should be sent to her (see green sheet for more information).
- Bonnie felt that we should address some of the issues discussed in the Rap Session by Dr. Pasewark in terms of the Future of Business Education.
- Maurice Henderson will assume the chair of the Foundation for the Future of Business Education on July 1. The Committee works on promotional materials for Business Education.
- NASBE members are to watch for the information forthcoming regarding the Teacher Education Summit.
- It was recommended that NASBE have sessions on the transformation of Business Education in an effort to continue to have teacher educators programs.
- Through the NASBE Newsletters, etc. make people aware of the concerns regarding the Future of Business Education.
- Bonnie suggested that one person share a couple of paragraphs each month because it has not been done on a regular basis. Information from Rap Session should be included.
